

Trier: Best Christmas Market in Germany as 2022 Travel Destination Repeat Title Win after Worldwide Online Vote

Trier/Brussels. Travelers from a total of 163 countries have selected the Trier Christmas Market as their favorite in Germany for 2022. The Trier Christmas Market achieved first place in Germany with altogether 9,615 votes on the online vote of the tourism platform "EuropeanBestDestinations." Trier now has the official title: "Best Christmas Market in Germany as 2022 travel destination."

Since 2009, the tourism platform headquartered in Brussels solicits a worldwide vote and compiles so-called "bucket lists" for the Internet. Altogether 173,620 travelers participated for ten days in December. Despite the cancelation of numerous Christmas markets because of the Covid pandemic in Europe, the online portal conducted the voting and asked the participants to select their favorite travel destination for the coming year. Budapest won first place in Europe with 24,180 votes. The Trier Christmas Market again placed among the TOP TEN in Europe and attained seventh place.

Silver Lining for the 2022 Trier Christmas Market

The organizer Angela Bruch from the Trier Christmas Market Association declared after the voting results, "The repeat of the title in Germany offers us a silver lining for next year. This success also puts us under a responsibility for 2022 to fulfill visitors' expectations as the loveliest Christmas market in Germany with the ambience of our decoration concept and attractive supporting program. This year we were able to present only a reduced offering."

Other cities placing in Germany: Cologne 3,034 votes, Leipzig 819, and Düsseldorf with 657. The TOP THREE in Europa are Budapest, Basel, and our neighboring city Metz.
