

The 45th Trier Christmas Market enchants Germany's oldest city

From 21 November to 22 December 2025, the romantic old town of Trier will once again be transformed into a glittering winter fairytale. The 45th Trier Christmas Market invites visitors from around the world to enjoy its magical atmosphere. In 2024, the market was voted „Best Christmas Market in Germany“ by the travel platform European Best Destinations – a prestigious title highlighting its exceptional quality and popularity.

A magical setting steeped in history

Set against the backdrop of the medieval main market square and Trier Cathedral, the market features lovingly decorated stalls, artisan Christmas crafts, and regional specialties. A unique highlight: Trier is home to Germany's only Mulled Wine Queen, the official ambassador for the delicious Moselle "Winzer-Glühwein".

Fun for the whole family

The German Christmas Academy invites families to sing traditional carols and craft festive decorations together. Popular among visitors of all ages is the Puppenbühne Rheinland puppet theatre. New this year is Trier's first interactive Christmas fairytale performance at the Domfreihof stage. Guided tours with professional storytellers bring history to life, while local artist Roland Grundheber helps children craft their own Christmas tree decorations.

Musical opening celebration

The official opening takes place on Monday, 24 November at 5:00 p.m., with a festive concert by Trier's beloved dialect band „Leindecker Bloas“ on the Domfreihof stage.
